Universal clauses

- 6 (1) The income and property of the charity shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects.
- (2) (a) A trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the charity or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the charity.
- (b) A trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the charity's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (c) A trustee may receive an indemnity from the charity in the circumstances specified in article 60.
- (3) None of the income or property of the charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the charity. This does not prevent a member who is not also a trustee receiving:

 - (b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the charity.

Trustees' benefits

- (4) (A) No trustee or connected person may:
- (a) buy any goods or services from the charity on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
 - (b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the charity;
 - (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the charity;
 - (d) receive any other financial benefit from the charity;
- unless:
- (i) the payment is permitted by article 6(4)(B)(a); or
 - (ii) the trustees obtain the prior written approval of the Commission and fully comply with any procedures it prescribes.

- (v) A trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the charity if the amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease are reasonable and proper and provided that the trustee concerned shall withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- (vi) The trustees may arrange for the purchase, out of the funds of the charity, of insurance designed to indemnify the trustees in accordance with the terms of, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.

- (vii) A trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the charity on the same terms as members of the public.

 - (i) the charity or its trustees (as the case may be); and
 - (ii) the trustee or connected person supplying the goods ("the supplier") under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the charity.
 - (b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
 - (c) The other trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
 - (d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with them with regard to the supply of goods to the charity.
 - (e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of trustees is present at the meeting.
 - (f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the trustees in the minutes of the meeting.
 - (g) A majority of the trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by article 6(4)(A).
- (5) (a) In sub-clauses (2)-(4) of this article 6 "charity" shall include any company in which the charity:
 - (i) holds more than 50% of the shares; or
 - (ii) controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
 - (iii) has the right to appoint one or more trustees to the board of the company;

- (b) In sub-clause (4) of this article 6, sub-clause (2) of article 49 and sub-clause (2) of article 50 "connected person" means:

- (3) The notice must specify the date, time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If the meeting is to be an annual general meeting, the notice must say so. The notice must also contain a statement setting out the right of members to appoint a proxy under section 324 of the Companies Act 2006 and article 19.
 - (4) The notice must be given to all the members and to the trustees and auditors.
- 13 The proceedings at a meeting shall not be invalidated because a person who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of an accidental omission by the charity.

Proceedings at general meetings

- 14 (1) No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present.

- (2) The trustees must reconvene the meeting and must give at least seven clear days' notice of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting.
- (3) If no quorum is present at the reconvened meeting within fifteen minutes of the time specified for the start of the meeting the members present in person or by proxy at that time shall constitute the quorum for that meeting.
- 16 (1) General meetings shall be chaired by the person who has been appointed to chair the board of trustees meetings.

 - (2) The person who is chairing the meeting must decide the date, time and place at which the meeting is to be reconvened unless those details are specified in the resolution.

 - (3)
 - (a) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn, before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the person who is chairing the meeting.
 - (b) If the demand for a poll is withdrawn the demand shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
 - (4)
 - (a) A poll must be taken as the person who is chairing the meeting directs, who may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and who may fix a time and place for declaring the results of the poll.
 - (b) The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.
 - (5)
 - (a) A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair a meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.

- (b) A poll demanded on any other question must be taken either immediately or at such time and place as the person who is chairing the meeting directs.

Content of proxy notices

- 19 (1) Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which:

 - (b) identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
 - (c) is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the trustees may determine; and

- (3) Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
- (4) Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:
- (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and
 - (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

Delivery of proxy notices

- 19A (1) A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the charity by or on behalf of that person.

- (2) An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the charity a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
- (3) A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

Votes of members

- 21 Subject to article 8, every member, whether an individual or an organisation, shall have one vote.
- 22 Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting at which the vote is tendered and the decision of the person who is chairing the meeting shall be final.
- 23 (1) Any organisation that is a member of the charity may nominate any person to act as its representative at any meeting of the charity.
 - (2) The organisation must give written notice to the charity of the name of its representative. The representative shall not be entitled to represent the organisation at any meeting unless the notice has been received by the charity. The representative may continue to represent the organisation until written notice to the contrary is received by the charity.

- (3) Any notice given to the charity will be conclusive evidence that the representative is entitled to represent the organisation or that his or her authority has been revoked. The charity shall not be required to consider whether the representative has been properly appointed by the organisation.

- 24
 - (1) A trustee must be a natural person aged 16 years or older.

- 28 A trustee may not appoint an alternate trustee or anyone to act on his or her behalf at board of trustees meetings.

Powers of trustees

- 29
 - (1) The trustees shall manage the business of the charity and may exercise all the powers of the charity unless they are subject to any restrictions imposed by the Companies Acts, the articles or any special resolution.
 - (2) No alteration of the articles or any special resolution shall have retrospective effect to invalidate any prior act of the trustees.
 - (3) Any board of trustees meeting at which a quorum is present at the time the relevant decision is made may exercise all the powers exercisable by the trustees.

Retirement of trustees

- 30 (1) At each annual general meeting one-third of the trustees or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, the number nearest to one-third, must retire from office.
- (2) The trustees to retire by rotation shall, subject to any ordinary resolution passed by the members pursuant to article 32 (2), be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment. If any trustees became or were appointed trustees on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined alphabetically.
- (3) If a trustee is required to retire at an annual general meeting by a provision of the articles the retirement shall take effect upon the conclusion of the meeting.

Appointment of trustees

- 31 The “ex officio” trustee shall be appointed automatically (without the need for any prior notice or the passing of any resolution by the trustees or members of the charity) to act as a trustee and such appointment shall be coterminous with their appointment as President of the FIA. The FIA shall be entitled to nominate three individuals to act as the “FIA trustees” and the FIA shall be entitled to remove their nominated trustees so appointed at any time by notice in writing to the charity and nominate another person to act in their place (such person to be appointed in accordance with articles 32 to 34).
- 32 The charity may by ordinary resolution:
- (1) appoint a person who is willing to act as a trustee (subject to articles 33 and 34 in the case of a person other than: (i) a trustee retiring by rotation; or (ii) the “ex officio” trustee); and
- (2) determine the rotation in which trustees are to retire.
- 33 No person other than a trustee retiring by rotation or the “ex officio” trustee may be appointed a trustee at any general meeting unless:
- (1) he or she is recommended for election by the trustees; or
- (2) he or she is nominated by a member; or
- (3) he or she is nominated by the FIA to be a “FIA trustee”.
- 34 Any member wishing to nominate a person for appointment as a trustee at any general meeting pursuant to article 33(2) must inform the charity in writing of its proposal no less than 90 clear days in advance of the general meeting. This proposal must:

- (3) be signed by the person who is to be proposed to show his or her willingness to be appointed; and
 - (4) be accompanied by a completed application form issued by the charity.
- 35 Other than with respect to the “ex officio” trustee pursuant to article 31, trustees shall be elected for a maximum of two terms of three years. The Board of Trustees may permit a trustee to stand for election for a third consecutive term of office if it is satisfied there is a particular need for that trustee’s skills and experience on the Board of Trustees or, in the case of “FIA trustees”, if the FIA requests such an extension.
- 36 Once elected, trustees serve in a personal capacity and not as the representative of any organisation.
- 37 All members who are entitled to receive notice of a general meeting must be given not less than seven nor more than twenty-eight clear days' notice of any resolution to be put to the meeting to appoint a trustee other than a trustee who is to retire by rotation or the “ex officio” trustee.
- 38 The trustees may co-opt a person who is willing to act as a trustee. A trustee co-opted by a resolution of the other trustees must retire at the next annual general meeting and must not be taken into account in determining the trustees who are to retire by rotation.
- 39 The appointment of a trustee, whether by the charity in general meeting or by the other trustees, must not cause the number of trustees to exceed any number fixed as the maximum number of trustees.

 - (6) is absent without the permission of the trustees from three consecutive meetings and the trustees resolve that his or her office be vacated.

Remuneration of trustees

- 41 The trustees must not be paid any remuneration unless it is authorised by article 6.
